

WEAVING CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES TOGETHER

SRUTI

Society for Rural, Urban & Tribal Initiative

SRUTI Fellows commemorated the Constitution Day of India, to remember the important values that it upholds, such as equality, justice, liberty, and fraternity.

To strengthen and promote constitutional values at grassroots levels, various participatory activities have been organised by Sangathans- with large participation of women, children, youth, Dalit, Adivasi and other communities.

In continuation of their resolve to learn and engage meaningfully on crucial issues, Sangathans have undertaken many initiatives and campaigns such as Samvidhan Yatra (Constitutional Journey), Har Ghar Samvidhan (Taking the constitution to each household), awareness meetings, trainings, and workshops have been organized in schools, college and public places at various districts across six states, engaging more than 50,000 people.

Innovative activities like book exhibitions, use of posters and organising mobile libraries, film screenings, constitution tree and signature campaign along with football matches has made the constitutional day more engaging.

6

States

10

Sangathans

30

Activities

55,000+

Reach

Rajasthan

In a vibrant celebration, the adolescent girls of Adharshila Learning Centre at Chittorgarh illuminated Constitutional Day with creativity and conviction. The young girls wielded their creativity to design compelling posters rooted in the very essence of the constitution.

Chhattisgarh

The Dalit Adivasi Manch organized an event with tribal women to recognize their rights to perform customary practices and protection from social injustice. The event had become more resonant by the dancing performance of young girls.

Maharashtra

Kashtkari Jan Andolan organised an awareness meeting in Nagpur with domestic workers. The collective aimed to realize the fundamental principles of dignity at the workplace and equal opportunities for all, as enshrined in constitutional values.

Jharkhand

'Samvidhan Yatra' (Constitutional Journey) was organized by Visthapit Mukti Vahini, by collaborating with other stakeholders to create a dialogue with school and college going youth and with villagers. The Yatra includes various creative activities like use of informative posters and book exhibition, film screening, mobile library, constitution tree and signature campaign, making it interesting for youth to participate.

Starting the event on 21st Nov from Seraikela Kharsawan district, the six days journey covered various villages from two districts and successfully concluded at Jamshedpur district, by participating in the Jam Street on 26th Nov, sending the message of peace and harmony to more than 50,000 people.

Odisha

Convention on constitutional values was organized by the Zindabad sangathan at Budhibahal village of Balangir district which includes the participation of 120 participants from four blocks of the district. The event emerged successful in educating and engaging the participants to learn and be aware of the Constitution.

Odisha

An awareness meeting was organized by the Lok Mukti Sangathan at Sambalpur district to interact with the tribal community and to foster their understanding on the laws safeguarding their rights.

Jharkhand

A meeting with school children had been organized by the Jan Sangarsh Samiti on Constitutional Day, aiming to interact with school children about the constitutional value of justice and equality and to also educate them about tribal rights.

Uttar Pradesh

Photo gallery and exhibition of freedom movement posters was demonstrated by Awadh People Forum at Ayodhya Cant station to creatively engage with citizens and to provide them information about the Indian Preamble and Constitution.

Along with this, Aman Trophy was organized on 8th December at Faizabad, aimed to spread the message of peace and harmony in the society while promoting a sense of fraternity among the youth.

Uttar Pradesh

MGNREGA Mazdoor Union in Banaras conducted a workshop on the theme 'women and constitution' with women laborers, building women's knowledge on the various laws aimed to protect women rights.

Uttar Pradesh

Door to door campaign called 'Har Ghar Samvidhan' was organized in Jaunpur by DISHA to interact with youth and families and to educate them the significance of constitutional values in their everyday life.

SRUTI

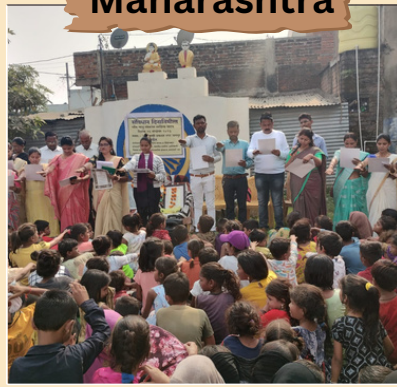

Society for Rural, Urban & Tribal Initiative

Rajasthan

Poster activity with the adolescent girls of Adharshila

Maharashtra

Awareness meeting with women domestic workers at Nagpur

Chhattisgarh

Event celebration with tribal community women

Odisha

Convention on Constitutional values by Zindabad Sangathan

Odisha

Establishing dialogues through awareness meeting

Jharkhand

Mobile library to enhance the knowledge on Constitution

Uttar Pradesh

Engagement with youth through 'Har Ghar Samvidhan'

Uttar Pradesh

'Women and Constitution' workshop with women laborer

Uttar Pradesh

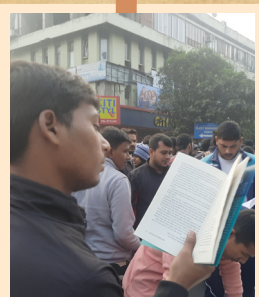

Spreading the message of harmony through Aman trophy tournament

Har Ghar Samvidhan Campaign

Signature Campaign

Mobile library

Dialogues in school

Poster Exhibition